

Shanna and Joe

Shanna and Joe, hand picked by the Lord
Walking down the aisle, anticipating what's in store
Love and compassion, sent by God your way
In a special delivery letter, just for this day
Take time to smell the roses and walk on the beach
Nothing in Gods eyes, is out of reach
As you travel life's, often bumpy road together
There will be sunny days and stormy weather
Learn what Gods teaching you, through all the trials
You'll walk with Him, millions of miles
He'll guide and direct you, every step of the way
Remember, start each day together and pray
In all the things, He calls you to do
Remember the glory, belongs to Him too.
